

Do not allow the federal telephone consumer protection act to override WI's state no call act. The federal law, which the Banker's want pushed ahead, does not protect the consumers, which is the purpose of the act. The federal act allows businesses to harass consumers, and harass is exactly what it does. Please, allow WI to keep its state law intact. It truly does protect the consumers not bow to big business. Thank you for reading this